Purchase Inventory Sales Flow

Ready-to-print functional flow document for testing team

End-to-End Functional Flow

Purchas Start of p	RFQ / Vendor Quote Collect pricing and terms.	Purchase Order Official supplier order.	GRN Goods receipt note poste	Quality Check Inspect received goods.
Putaway Move to v	Inventory Increased Stock available for sale.	Sales Order / POS Customer demand captur	Pick / Pack / Dispatch Fulfil order and invoice.	Payment / Accounting Record receipt and entries.

Negative / Exception Paths

1. Purchase Order Created
Exception flow begins here.

↓

2. Vendor Delivers?
Decision point before GRN.

No
PO delayed / follow-up
No stock increase

Yes
GRN entry
Qty compared with PO

3. Qty Matches PO?
Check full / partial / excess receipt.

↓

4. QC Pass?
Quality check before putaway.

Partial / Excess
Partial GRN / reject extra qty
Backorder open if partial

Pass
Putaway to bin
Inventory on-hand increased

5. Sales Request / POS
Sale can continue only if stock is available.

↓

6. Stock Available?
Controls whether sale proceeds or is blocked.

No
Block sale / allow backorder
Pending demand recorded

Yes
Pick + Pack + Dispatch
Invoice generated, inventory decreases

7. Payment Received?
Final sales closure decision.

8. Customer Return?
Return handling branch after sale.

Partial / No
Open receivable / credit follow-up
Sale remains open

Yes
Sales return
Restock or scrap

Functional Test Checkpoints

- Purchase side: requisition, PO approval, GRN posting, and inventory increase.
- Inventory side: putaway location updates, available quantity, and status transitions.
- Sales side: sale creation, pick/pack/dispatch, inventory deduction, invoice/payment.
- Side effects: inventory ledger rows and accounting entries at each branch.
- Negative flows: partial GRN, rejected QC, insufficient stock, partial/no payment, sales return.

Tip: Open this PDF and send it directly to the testing team.